Entries in this Index refer to the edition, the volume and paragraph number and, where appropriate, the footnote number at which the relevant information appears in the main volumes. Volume numbers are printed in bold type with the relevant edition number following in parentheses (eg 54 (5th)). Paragraph numbers are in roman type (eg 123) and note numbers are indicated by superior figures (eg n^5).

This volume of the Consolidated Index covers letters P-Z, with the first volume covering letters A-E, and the second volume covering letters F-O.

The Index is an index to the law as stated in Halsbury's Laws of England and does not take account of changes made by legislation subsequent to the publication of each volume. The effect of all such changes is fully set out in the Cumulative Supplement and the Noter-up, and reference should always be made to these publications after reading the text to which the Index has directed attention.

Volumes published subsequent to the 2019 Consolidated Index will be served by their own indexes, which will supersede the relevant entries in the Consolidated Index. Subscribers are therefore reminded that they should refer directly to the indexes of volumes reissued since June 2019, as entries relating to such volumes in this Index may no longer be correct.

In order to assist subscribers further, a full list of volumes, paragraph numbers and titles covered in the Consolidated Index appears on pp xiii-xvii.

Within the text of the Consolidated Index, the words above and below direct readers to an entry appearing under the same capitalised main heading.

HOW TO USE HALSBURY'S LAWS OF ENGLAND

Volumes

Each text volume of Halsbury's Laws of England contains the law on the titles contained in it as at a date stated at the front of the volume (the operative date).

Information contained in Halsbury's Laws of England may be accessed in several ways.

First, by using the tables of contents.

Each volume contains both a general Table of Contents, and a specific Table of Contents for each title contained in it. From these tables you will be directed to the relevant part of the work.

Readers should note that the current arrangement of titles can be found in the Noter-up.

Secondly, by using tables of statutes, statutory instruments, cases or other materials.

If you know the name of the Act, statutory instrument or case with which your research is concerned, you should consult the Consolidated Tables of statutes, cases and so on (published as separate volumes) which will direct you to the relevant volume and paragraph.

(Each individual text volume also includes tables of those materials used as authority in that volume.)

Thirdly, by using the indexes.

If you are uncertain of the general subject area of your research, you should go to the Consolidated Index (published as separate volumes) for reference to the relevant volume(s) and paragraph(s).

(Each individual text volume also includes an index to the material contained therein.)

Updating publications

The text volumes of Halsbury's Laws should be used in conjunction with the annual Cumulative Supplement and the monthly Noter-up.

The annual Cumulative Supplement

The Supplement gives details of all changes between the operative date of the text volume and the operative date of the Supplement. It is arranged in the same volume, title and paragraph order as the text volumes. Developments affecting particular points of law are noted to the relevant paragraph(s) of the text volumes.

For narrative treatment of material noted in the Cumulative Supplement, go to the annual Abridgment volume for the relevant year.

The Noter-up

The Noter-up is issued monthly and notes changes since the publication of the annual Cumulative Supplement. Also arranged in the same volume, title and paragraph order as the text volumes, the Noter-up follows the style of the Cumulative Supplement.

For narrative treatment of material noted in the Noter-up, go to the annual Abridgement for the relevant year.

LIST OF VOLUMES, PARAGRAPH NUMBERS AND TITLES

The use of this list will enable the reader to determine from an entry in the Consolidated Index the title to which a reference is made.
